Darryl says: He likes the veteran Blues group Southern Avenue comeback Album called family with their new single called Boogie Rum on Alligator Records.

Tori says: So last week I told y'all about doing weekly radio phone interviews with my doctor. He tries to keep me on the straight and narrow when it comes to healthy eating. That can be tough because I frequently stop on my way to the station for a fast food restaurant breakfast sandwich. In other words, bread. Challenge is, the doctor had told me that "if it's white it ain't right" meaning no salt, sugar, pasta, potatoes, white rice, and no bread. I gave up most of that with no problem (except for those breakfast sandwiches). Now then, most of my loved ones know that I am a chocoholic and since my birthday was last week, one of them bought me a delicious brownie cake with cream cheese icing and oreo crumbles. Yum. I thought that I was texting a picture of it to my best buddy Jimmy. But at the same time, I was also texting the doctor to see if he was between patients and available for the interview. Somehow, I sent the picture of the cake to the doctor by mistake. Then said "Oops". He responded "Oops indeed". So I chickened out and told him we probably didn't need to do the interview that day lol. Ah well. Love, Tori
