COMMENTS:

Darryl says: He likes the new Jazz Group called Butcher Brown with a single called Dinorah Dinorah on Concord.

Tori says: We're going to miss Angie Stone. I remember the first time we met when my friend Chris Cunningham invited me backstage after a D'Angelo performance. I took the picture with the brother and told him I was a pretty good alto so since we were all already wearing black, maybe I should just join in with the background singers. Angie told me quick that SHE was holding down the alto part, lol. Alright now, I see you Sister! A few years later, I was doing a radio interview with Angie because she was so mad talented and deserved the shine. We talked about everything including the industry, her time with Sequence, to Vertical Hold, to the tv theme songs she did, and the songs she wrote or co-wrote (including with D'Angelo), and other stuff. But I could tell she was distracted at times. This became evident when I heard the chimes at an ATM. I said ANGIE, WHATCHU DOING? She said "Oh Girl, I had to come to the ATM". I said "Well pull some money out for me to but pay attention chile cuz we're live on the radio right now!" We both laughed. She was so cool. And she was truly talented. Tori
