COMMENTS:

Darryl says: He forgives Tori for swiping and eating his fudge cake, but from now on he's going to buy oatmeal because he knows she won't take it.

Tori says: Much love to Melvin Riley, solo artist extraordinaire, and former leader of Ready for the World. His song "Sugar Daddy" has been number one on both our playlists for two weeks in a row. When a fine brother offers the spend money on me, my answer is gonna be oh honey yes. We have played Melvin's music for years from RFTW to the album Bedroom Stories and "What Makes A Man (Wanna Cheat on His Woman)" and all the rest going back to "Oh Sheila" and "Let Me Love You Down"? We really like Melvin Riley. Love and prayers for Charles Geer - the Promoter with a capital P. He always knows where the best restaurants were, and I used to love going with him. Sometimes, it was dinner with the Atlanta Chief of Police (which is probably why Charles had his own badge even though I don't think he ever arrested anybody). Charles would not only pick the restaurant, that brother would then stroll into the kitchen, where all of the chefs apparently knew him personally, so he could pick out the steak he wanted them to cook for him. He's one of a kind and the most lovable promoter I know. Peace people, Tori.
