Tori says: Handy Festival 2024 has almost come to an end. There were about 250 different activities happening in eight different cities and towns that started July 6th during a period of over a month. The final one won't be until mid-August. So this thing keeps spreading y'all, and this sister is truly some kind of tired. We'll get caught up on music over the next few weeks. I am going to miss Libby Anthony. That lady had so much energy, could outdance everybody I know, was such a positive force, and always so cool to work with. I remember her putting me to work introducing awardees at one of her shows which had me backstage cutting up with crazy, mad trash talking, always fun to be around Roger Troutman. She put up with Tony Mercedes and his outrageous requests. And she knew just about everybody. Libby was the first national club promoter I ever met and the lady knew the game and she even wrote a book. Libby Anthony will truly be missed. Take time to show love to your loved ones while you can. Peace and love to all of y'all, Tori.
