COMMENTS:

Darryl says: He knows that Tori loves chocolate so he keeps sharing his favorite types with her.

Tori says: Sometimes someone will do a re-make of a song, and it'll be ok. Sometimes the original is much better (maybe because of the nostalgia). But there are some that can take a familiar song and make it a new favorite. That's the case with our number one song on the blues and Soul list, Jamison Ross, with his rendition of the Jennifer Holiday classic "Say You Love Me". That also holds true with another song on our playlist, Zac Harmon f/Sue Ann Carwell's version of Bobby Womack's "That's The Way I Feel About Cha". And of course with one of my favorite artists, John Legend, with his album of songs that we've all known for years but that somehow touch us in a different way including "Bridge Over Troubled Waters". I'm also a fan of October London, and am feeling grateful to him for crooning like Marvin and keeping true R&B alive. Much love to everyone, Tori
