COMMENTS:

Darryl says: He's been doing a great job of finding new music, and we'll add more of it next week!

Tori says: I don't spend a lot of time on Facebook but somehow ended up following Eric Benet. That cat is funny! He told this story about Joe Jackson that had me laughing out loud, probably for the first time since the results of the presidential election. So, I'm really appreciating him right about now. Here are the good things that happened. I was unopposed for re-election to my County Commission seat, meaning I have another four years there. And I'm holding the gavel as Commission Chair. (I'm the only Democrat and only woman on our six-person Commission.) Also, Alabama now has an additional Congressional District and Brother Shomari Figures won that seat. (Shomari worked with both the Obama Administration and with Merick Garland.) That means we now have two Black folks representing Alabama in Congress, which is as it should be since Alabama's population is twenty-seven percent Black. Now if we can just keep these crazy folks from disenfranchising our voters, and get Pookie nem to the polls on EVERY election day, making good choices, then maybe there is hope for our future. Love, Tori
