COMMENTS:

Tori says: WZZA Radio recently had a great visit with Downtown Jackson Brown who has a great Southern Soul countdown which airs weekly on our Soul of the Shoals! Jackson spent some time with us, got the WZZA tour, and shared some great memories and stories about his career as our talk show guest. Lots of folks told me how much they enjoyed hearing that conversation. And Jackson is a cool guy who shared some valuable insights. Always so good to have "family" in the house. Last week, I was in Montgomery for the Attorney Fred D. Gray Institute For Human and Civil Rights Symposium. It was just what's needed as we all gear up for the mid-term elections. One thing that was jarring to hear was that NINETY MILLION REGISTERED VOTERS NATIONWIDE DID NOT VOTE IN THE LAST ELECTION. In Alabama alone that number is over 555,000. One of the panelists told his that we have to inspire them, give them a reason to exercise their right. That means that we can't fuss at them, lecture them, even waste time being disappointed. We've got to figure out what they want and need, then explain clearly and in understandable terms, how voting can help them get that. We've all got some work to do. Tori
