COMMENTS:

Tori says: Kudos to Kem for starting his own record label, Chemistry Records. Brother has got the gift. There is lots going on in the Shoals and WZZA Radio is talking about all of it. That includes a return visit by the Shoals area's native son, the one and only Ozzie "the Wizard of Oz" Newsome, who played for Alabama, then the Browns, and is now with the Baltimore Ravens. He'll be here for UNA's athletic scholarship fundraising banquet. And of course Delta Sigma Theta is partnering with WZZA during May Week for our annual "Gospel in the Park" event. Then during Memorial Day weekend there will be the Joe Douglas Entertainment Old School Festival (which is one of the oldest Black music festivals in the state (other than Handy Festival!). We've selling tickets at WZZA Radio. Then WZZA itself will present a gospel concert in June leading up to our radio station's anniversary on July 4th! And then there's the Handy Festival happening July 15th through 26th. (And yes I quit last year but I'm back, still doing my thing, but I've hired somebody to help out this year so I won't be overworked and grumpy anymore!) Tori
