COMMENTS:

Tori says: Ok so yes we've been away for a while but we're back now!!! There has been so much going on. WZZA celebrated 54 years of continuous broadcasting on July 4th with memories from listeners who've been part of our radio family for over half a century. The station and my parents were part of an exhibit at the Tennessee Valley Museum of Arts titled "Something in the Water", and my father is currently included in the exhibit about Muscle Shoals music at the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville, Tennessee. Who would have ever thunk? And I'll bet that my father is somewhere cracking up about that. So while Reese has been adding some music over the past weeks, it's time to update the WZZA playlists and report. Plus I've been busy with Handy Festival stuff. More on that later. If you've sent any music via email, please resend so we can catch up. TCB
