COMMENTS:

Tori says: We're finally back doing our WZZA Playlist! Kudos to Georgia! Proud of the way our folks came aout and voted this time. Let's keep the momentum going and get ourselves a much better president in 2028!!!

Hydeia says: Again, thanks, Chris, for the suggestions! And she has the following song reviews...
Diamond Pynk - Handle Me - It's fitting to play this artist with last month being Breast Cancer Awareness month. She chose the stage name "Pynk" in honor of her late grandmother who passed following a battle with the deadly cancer. She's a graduate of the Berklee College of Music, so she's the real deal. "Handle Me" is a sultry tune that you can't help but to bop your head to. It has a late-night RnB, Sweat Hotel-esque vibe. Love it and it's now a part of my personal playlist.
Sue Ann Carwell - Things Lovers Do - You know I love a good baseline, and this song has a great one. It's easy listening and fits our afternoon drive perfectly in my opinion.
Laila! ft. Teezo Touchdown – ANGEL - I love Laila! and I love Teezo Touchdown. If you get the chance to watch the music video, the concept is both clever and entertaining. I know I say love a lot, but I truly love music.
Leven Kali ft. Durand Benarr – SLEEPWALKIN - This song has a funky baseline that makes me want to get up and dance. I would do that, but I have no physical rhythm.
